

Respect, Protect, and Fulfill Sexual Health and Rights

DEFINING SEXUAL RIGHTS

- The right to personal autonomy and bodily integrity
- The right to a safe, satisfying sexual life
- The right to live a sexual life free of discrimination
- The right to privacy
- The right to sexual health

THE WORLD TODAY

25
MILLION 25 million unsafe abortions take place each year due to restrictions on access and stigma

70
COUNTRIES 70 countries around the world criminalize same-sex sexual acts

SOLUTIONS

Strong legal policies and systems to protect the sexual and reproductive health and rights of all

Comprehensive sexuality education in schools

Protection of sexual rights of marginalized groups

Involve boys and men to respect, protect, and fulfill sexual rights

THE INVESTMENT CASE

$6.9
BILLION

Net savings of integrating contraceptive services with maternal and newborn health services in developing regions

=

67
MILLION

Providing girls and women in developing regions with necessary sexual and reproductive healthcare would prevent 67 million unintended pregnancies

When girls and women have the right to control their own bodies, sexuality, and fertility, it transforms gender relations and increases their ability to live happier, healthier, and more fulfilling lives.

ASKS

Recognize—in policy, practice, and funding—the central role that sexual health and rights play in health equity, human rights, and development, while ensuring the inclusion of these rights in all national and sub-national policies.

Stop using criminal law to control people's sexual health and rights and adopt appropriate laws and policies that respect, protect, and fulfill sexual health and rights for all, including youth.

Ensure that abortion is safe, legal, accessible, and affordable and that postabortion care is available for all who need it.

Engage men and boys in sexual health and rights initiatives.

Ensure that adequate legal systems upholding national policies focused on sexual health and rights are in place and establish a high-level governmental department for monitoring and accountability.

Establish comprehensive sexuality education in schools.

Enforce the integration of sexual health and rights frameworks within all training programs for health providers emphasizing the importance of accessible, stigma-free services for all, including marginalized groups, people living with disabilities, LGBTQIA+ communities, youth, and adolescents.
